

Parking is very limited!
Please carpool.

The next district professional development day for faculty of middle schools and traditional elementary schools is October 19, 2009. On this day participants will have the opportunity to attend the Salt Lake City School District fall conference and be paid at their per diem rate. Many different sessions will be offered to meet the needs and interests of the broad range of teachers, administrators, and other professionals that will be attending the conference.

Fall Conference: Equity and Excellence

October 19
Glendale Middle School
Conference: 8:30-12:30
Registration begins at 8:15

* An equivalent opportunity will be offered for year-round elementary and high school teachers on March 8, 2010, the district professional development day for these schools.

Sponsored by
Salt Lake City School District