THE POLICY

The Salt Lake City School District Board of Education complies with all applicable state and federal procurement laws. The board delegates to the director of purchasing authority to carry out the district's procurement and contracting functions and to ensure such functions are in accordance with established policies and procedures. The director of purchasing may delegate to, or withdraw delegated purchasing authority from, any employee, including directors, school principals, and purchasing agents.

The purpose of this policy is to enable the district to purchase goods and services at the lowest possible price consistent with the quality and quantity needed, to clearly define authority for the purchasing and contracting functions, and to allow fair and equal opportunity among qualified suppliers.

The district will set forth its specific processes for implementing this board policy through the accompanying administrative procedures.

No district employee or student shall be subjected to discrimination in employment or any district program or activity on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, gender identity, genetic information, national origin, pregnancy, race, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status. The district is committed to providing equal access and equal opportunity in its programs, services and employment including its policies, complaint processes, program accessibility, district facility use, accommodations and other Equal Employment Opportunity matters. The district also provides equal access to district facilities for all youth groups listed in Title 36 of the United States Code, including scouting groups. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries and complaints regarding unlawful discrimination, harassment, and retaliation: Tina Hatch, Compliance and Investigations, 440 East 100 South, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, (801) 578-8388.
