

Claim of Business Confidentiality

Pursuant to Utah Code Ann., Sections 63G-2-304-305 and 308 _____

(company name)

asserts a claim of business confidentially to protect the following information submitted as part of a response to a Request for Proposal or Invitation for Bids.

This claim is asserted because this information requires protection as it includes:

O trade secrets as defined in Section 13-24-2 ("Trade secret" means information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or process, that: (a) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and (b) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy).

O commercial information or non-individual finance information obtained from a person if: (a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to result in unfair competitive injury to the person submitting the information or would impair the ability of the governmental entity to obtain necessary information in the future; and (b) the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access than the public in obtaining access.

This statement of reasons supporting the claim of business confidentiality applies to the following information in this proposal or bid:

Please use additional sheets if needed.

If you do not identify specific information as being confidential, it will be assumed that your response contains non confidential information and may become subject to public disclosure.

You will be notified if a record claimed to be protected herein under Utah Code Ann. § 63G-2-305 or 305 are classified public or if the governmental entity determines that the record should be released after balancing interests under Utah Code Ann. § 63G-2-201(5)(b) or Utah Code Ann. § 63G-2-401(6).

See Utah Code Ann. § 63G-2-308.
